Dear Ms. Best:

This is a final response to your 4 September 2018 Freedom of Information Act request, received in the office of the Information and Privacy Coordinator on 5 September 2018, for records relating to or mentioning Ivan Illich AKA Ilich (4 September 1926 – 2 December 2002).) We processed your request in accordance with the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552, as amended, and the CIA Information Act, 50 U.S.C. § 3141, as amended.

After conducting a search reasonably calculated to uncover all relevant documents that would reveal a publicly acknowledged CIA affiliation with the subject, we did not locate any responsive records.

To the extent that your request also seeks records, if any exist, that would reveal an unacknowledged or classified affiliation with the subject of your request, CIA can neither confirm nor deny the existence or nonexistence of such records. The admission of existence or nonexistence of such records is a fact that is exempt under FOIA. You may consider this finding a denial of this portion of your request pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3), or FOIA exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3), as appropriate. Exemption (b)(3) pertains to information exempt from disclosure by statute. In this case, the relevant statutes are Section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, 50 U.S.C. § 3507, as amended, and Section 102A (i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, 50 U.S.C. 3024(i)(1), as amended.

As the CIA Information and Privacy Coordinator, I am the CIA official responsible for this determination. You have the right to appeal this response to the Agency Release Panel, in my care, within 90 days from the date of this letter. Please include the basis of your appeal.

Please be advised that you may seek dispute resolution services from the CIA's FOIA Public Liaison or from the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) of the National Archives and Records Administration. OGIS offers mediation services to help resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies. Contacting the CIA's

FOIA Public Liaison or OGIS does not affect your right to pursue an administrative appeal.

You may reach CIA's FOIA Public Liaison at:
703-613-1287 (FOIA Hotline)

The contact information for OGIS is:
